What was your biggest worry when selling your house?	What was the easiest part of the selling process?
Getting everything cooderinated	Letting the realtor work know thd negotiations
Finding a new one in time.	Letting a realtor do it for us this last time.
That it would sell	Showing the property
That no one would want to buy it	Using a realtor made it easier
That no one would want to buy it	Osing a reality made it easier
If I gonna get the good price for that or no	Sold my house through real estate agent so it was easier
Was I going to be able to afford cost of bigger home, bigger mortgage liability	Agent made selling very easy; good location so lots of interest
That it would sell below the asking price.	I had an amazing realtor, and I made a good profit.
Whether I would get the asking price	Working with my real estate agent
Getting top dollar and a qualified buyer	I did it in 3 days had an offer in hand
